The Honorable Frederick H. Mueller
The Secretary of Commerce
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Mueller:

The United States Intelligence Board has considered the request contained in the 12 June letter from your predecessor to me, suggesting that it would be desirable to have a Department of Commerce representative on the USIB Committee on Exchanges. I take pleasure in informing you that we believe there will be mutual benefit in having a Commerce designee as an Associate Member on the Committee on Exchanges. I have instructed the Chairman of the USIB Committee on Exchanges to invite Mr. Shepherd to attend subsequent meetings at which items of interest to the Department of Commerce will be discussed and to make available to him all necessary material concerning such items.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Allen W. Dulles
